

GME – Patient Safety Post-Test

1 – Variance reports are used to identify system and process issues and provide opportunities for improvement across the organization.

TRUE FALSE

2- Variance reports are considered privileged and protected information (legally undiscoverable) under Nebraska Statute; HOWEVER, if the variance report itself is referenced in the medical record or if it is copied, this protection is lost.

TRUE FALSE

3- If an error happens, which of the following should be done?

- a. Care for the patient
- b. Disclosure of event to patient family
- c. file variance report
- d. Care for staff involved in error
- e. Complete assessment of error
- f. Implement improvement of errors
- g. ALL of the above

4-Which of the following is NOT one of the 3 safety expectations all employees are to follow

- Everyone comes to work on time
- Everyone supports a questioning attitude
- Everyone is accountable for clear complete communication
- Everyone makes a personal commitment to safety

5- A high reliability organization is one that operates under very trying conditions all the time yet manages to have fewer than their fair share of accidents

TRUE FALSE